Notes from our President

Well, everyone, fall is here, and hunting season has officially begun!

Hopefully, you've had the opportunity to get your stands and blinds prepared and your food plots and hunting areas ready for the season ahead.

We've already had the opportunity to enjoy one alligator hunt, with another one scheduled soon. We're also working on securing some donated bird and deer hunts for our veterans. We've been talking with several individuals and organizations, and things are looking very promising. We're excited about what's ahead and hope to have some great opportunities to share with you soon!

Stay tuned for updates, and make sure you're receiving emails from us. If you haven't seen any recently, be sure to check your spam or junk folder.

From all of us at Hero Hunts, we wish you a safe, successful, and enjoyable hunting season. Good luck, and we hope you make some great memories in the outdoors this year!

As always, Stay safe and God Bless,
Minos

Host: Hero Hunts, Etienne Campbell

Hero Hunts Member/Vet - Chris Broussard

Veteran -Kenneth Despain

The group met up at 0730 hours, had breakfast and headed to the swamp. They harvested 4 big gators. Kenny said "I had an amazing day, from breakfast all the way to good bye. Getting to hang with Chris and Cheesy all day and just be in the outdoors was fun in itself. Hunting alligators was as awesome as I'd imagined and was a hunt I'd wanted to make all my life."
